1. COURSE PRESENTATION

Course Description

International Marketing course focuses on challenges and opportunities of marketing new and existing products and services to the global marketplace. It builds on the knowledge acquired in former academic courses and applies key marketing concepts in the international business context. It introduces students to international-level strategic and operational marketing tools and decision and influence techniques for international markets.

Objectives

The course accomplishes its objectives through lectures, analyses and discussions of real business cases of actual global marketing issues, and through the establishment of a company's international marketing strategy. It pays special attention to variations from home-country marketing and to strategies used by international marketers. Specifically, the course analyzes the impact of cultural, economic, technological, political, and legal differences on the international marketing process.

On successful completion of this course students should be able to:

- Understand the nature of international marketing strategy and its linkages to corporate strategy vis-à-vis local and national marketing strategy.

MSc in International Business (2024/25)

- Develop analytical frameworks in the screening of national markets defining the key factors in the firm's internationalization process by evaluating the international business environment, stressing particularly the economic and cultural dimensions.
- Discuss the complexities and paradoxes that are prevalent in so many successful and failing international marketing operations.
- Explore the tensions in adopting a global standardized action as opposed to a locally responsive action in international marketing and relate these to the overall corporate strategy of companies.
- Consider ethical and social responsibility issues, in the development and implementation of an international marketing strategy
- This course is included in the subject International trade, which has the following learning outcomes:
 - The student will be able to recognise the most advanced knowledge and core competences in the organisation and management of the activities of a foreign trade department.
 - RA2. Mat.3.1 Identify sources of international information and documentation (public and private) on the business potential of a country and a sector of economic activity.
 - The student will be able to discriminate the different types of business presence to implement business activities abroad during the resolution of practical cases proposed within the master's degree.
 - RA3. Mat.3.2 Develop a market research project for decision making in an international business environment.
 - The student will be able to decide the optimal way for the company to enter international markets by participating in international negotiation processes in the professional context.
 - RA4. Mat.3.3 Organise the sales force to be deployed in new markets.
 - The student will be able to communicate the learning of the activities proposed during the Master in a clear and unambiguous way so that specialised and non-specialised audiences understand the specificities of the subject/discipline in a clear and structured way, providing information that does not generate confusion.
 - RA5. Mat.3.4 Apply the rules of communication taking into account the different countries where they deploy their commercial strategy.
 - The student will be able to develop the ability to examine the world and its

2. COURSE LEARNING PLAN

Methodology

Students are expected to be prepared and participate actively in class discussions. Therefore, students must read prior to the class session the material related to the content of the session.

Students of a specific group will work on the case study analyses and discussions and will elaborate and present the international marketing plan which will be part of the Master Thesis. Case discussions will be evaluated both as a group and on an individual basis. The group presentations will be evaluated and graded on a group basis.

Teaching resources

- Powerpoint slides for each session
- Articles related to subject and case studies

The competences, the learning outcomes, the assessment elements and the quality of the learning process included in this Teaching Plan will not be affected if during the academic trimester the teaching model has to switch either to an hybrid model (combination of face-to-face and on-line sessions) or to a complete on-line model.

Evaluation criteria

Regular term evaluation

The final grade will be determined by the weighted average of various continuous evaluation activities and a final exam.

Assessment elements	Time period	Type of assessment		Assessment agent			Type of activity	Grouping		Weight (%)
		Comp	Opt	Teacher	Self-eval	Co-eval		Indiv.	Group
Class act&individual work	Throughout the course	X		X			Conceptual and synthesis	X		20%
Int'l Marketing Plan partial submittal	Throughout the course	X		X			Application and synthesis	X	X	10%
Submittals and Discussions Business Cases	Throughout the course	X		X			Application and synthesis	X	X	10%
Int'l Marketing Plan final submittal and oral presentation	Throughout the course	X		X			Application and synthesis	X	X	20%
Final Exam (A minimum score of 4 is required)	Exam week	X		X			Conceptual and synthesis	X		40%

Students need to obtain a minimum of 4 in the final exam to pass the course. This condition applies to both the regular exam and the retake exam. The final course grade of students that do not obtain a minimum of 4 in the exam will be the minimum between 4 and the final grade computed from the different evaluation elements (with the weights set above).

Retake conditions

Students that fail the evaluation of the course will have a retake exam opportunity that will be programmed in accordance with the academic calendar. If a student has to retake the exam, his maximal grade for the course will be a 5,0 (out of 10,0).

MSc in International Business (2024/25)

General Issues

Students are required to attend 80% of classes. Failing to do so without justified reason will imply a Zero grade in the participation/attendance evaluation item and may lead to suspension from the program.

Students who fail the course during the regular evaluation are allowed ONE re-take of the evaluation, in the conditions specified above. If the course is again failed after the retake, the student will have to register again for the course the following year.

In case of a justified no-show to an exam, the student must inform the corresponding faculty member and the director(s) of the program so that they study the possibility of rescheduling the exam (one possibility being during the “Retake” period). In the meantime, the student will get an “incomplete”, which will be replaced by the actual grade after the final exam is taken. The “incomplete” will not be reflected on the student’s Academic Transcript.

Plagiarism is to use another’s work and to present it as one’s own without acknowledging the sources in the correct way. All essays, reports or projects handed in by a student must be original work completed by the student. By enrolling at ESCI UPF BSM Master of Science and signing the “Honor Code,” students acknowledge that they understand the schools’ policy on plagiarism and certify that all course assignments will be their own work, except where indicated, by correct referencing. Failing to do so may result in automatic expulsion from the program.”
